Sunday Hymns from the Octoechos, Tone 4

Tone 4      Troparion      (Resurrection)

When the women disciples of the Lord learned from the angel the joyous message of thy Resurrection, they cast away the ancestral curse and elatedly told the apostles: "Death is overthrown! Christ God is risen, granting the world great mercy!"

Tone 4      Troparion (Forefeast)

The river Jordan was turned back by the mantle of Elisha, after Elijah had been taken up to heaven. The waters were parted in two, and the stream became a dry path. This was truly a type of baptism, by which we pass over the stream of life. Christ has shone forth in the Jordan to sanctify the waters.

Tone 4      Kontakion      (Resurrection)

My Savior and Redeemer as God rose from the tomb and delivered the earth-born from their chains. He has shattered the gates of hell, and as Master, He has risen on the third day!

Tone 2      Kontakion      (Forefeast)

O Christ, in Thy compassion and infinite mercy, Thou art coming as a man to be baptized in the Jordan, in order to take away the many transgressions of us all, clothing me in the garment of ancient glory of which I was cruelly stripped bare.

Tone 4      Kontakion      (Forefeast)

Today the Lord enters the Jordan and cries out to John: "Do not be afraid to baptize me, for I come to save Adam, the first-formed man!"

Tone 6      Prokeimenon

O Lord, save Thy people, and bless Thine inheritance! (Ps 27/28:9)

To Thee, O Lord, will I call. O my God, be not silent to me! (Ps 27/28:1)

Epistle Lesson for Today: 2 Timothy 4:5-8

(Sunday Before Theophany)

Read by: Reader Nicholas Lezinsky

But you be watchful in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry. For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day, and not to me only but also to all who have loved His appearing.

Epistle Lesson for Today: 1 Corinthians 9:18-27

Read by: Reader Nicholas Lezinsky

For though I am free from all men, I have made myself a servant to all, that I might win the more; and to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might win Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law, that I might win those who are under the law; to those who are without law, as without law (not being without law toward God, but under law toward Christ), that I might win those who are without law; to the weak I became as weak, that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all men, that I might by all means save some. Now this I do for the gospel's sake, that I may be partaker of it with you. Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may obtain it. And everyone who competes for the prize is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a perishable crown, but we for an imperishable crown. Therefore I run thus: not with uncertainty. Thus I fight: not as one who beats the air. But I discipline my body and bring it into subjection, lest, when I have preached to others, I myself should become disqualified.

Alleluia Verses

Tone 8

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

O God, be bountiful to us and bless us, show the light of Thy countenance upon us, and have mercy on us!. (Ps 66/67:1-2)

That we may know Thy way upon the earth, and Thy salvation among all nations. (Ps 66/67-3)

Gospel Lesson for Today: Mark 1:1-8

(Sunday Before Theophany)

The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. As it is written in the Prophets: "Behold, I send My messenger before Your face, Who will prepare Your way before You. The voice of one crying in the wilderness: 'Prepare the way of the LORD; make His paths straight.'" John came baptizing in the wilderness and preaching a baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. Then all the land of Judea, and those from Jerusalem, went out to him and were all baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins. Now John was clothed with camel's hair and with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. And he preached, saying, "There comes One after me who is mightier than I, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to stoop down and loose. I indeed baptized you with water, but He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

Gospel Lesson for Today: Mark 1:1-8

Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, while Annas and Caiaphas were high priests, the word of God came to John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness. And he went into all the region around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the remission of sins, as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying: "Prepare the way of the LORD; make His paths straight. Every valley shall be filled and every mountain and hill brought low; the crooked places shall be made straight and the rough ways smooth; and all flesh shall see the salvation of God." Then he said to the multitudes that came out to be baptized by him, "Brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Therefore bear fruits worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones. And even now the ax is laid to the root of the trees. Therefore every tree which does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire." So the people asked him, saying, "What shall we do then?" He answered and said to them, "He who has two tunics, let him give to him who has none; and he who has food, let him do likewise." Then tax collectors also came to be baptized, and said to him, "Teacher, what shall we do?" And he said to them, "Collect no more than what is appointed for you." Likewise the soldiers asked him, saying, "And what shall we do?" So he said to them, "Do not intimidate anyone or accuse falsely, and be content with your wages." Now as the people were in expectation, and all reasoned in their hearts about John, whether he was the Christ or not, John answered, saying to all, "I indeed baptize you with water; but One mightier than I is coming, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to loose. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clean out His threshing floor, and gather the wheat into His barn; but the chaff He will burn with unquenchable fire." And with many other exhortations he preached to the people.

Communion Hymn

Praise the Lord from the heavens! Praise Him in the highest! (Ps 148:1)

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

Hymn to the Theotokos

It is truly meet to bless you, O Theotokos, ever-blessed and most pure, and the Mother of our God. More honorable than the Cherubim, and more glorious beyond compare than the Seraphim; without defilement you gave birth to God the Word; true Theotokos, we magnify you.

Sunday, January 19, 2020 is Sanctity of Human Life Sunday. Our Parish Council and the Revitalization Committee are pleased to co-host a presentation to our parish by Bright Hope Pregnancy Support Centers' Community Relations Director, Jennifer Davies. We have invited her to join us for Divine Liturgy, Coffee Hour and then to present a summary of the wonderful work they do in the Lehigh Valley and across our nation.

Bright Hope honors life and offers hope by providing pregnancy support services, resources and life skills education to women, men and youth. It is more than pro-life. It is pro-ABUNDANT-life, striving to save the lives of the unborn and to care for the men and women facing unplanned pregnancy. Bright Hope provides resources for their needs, not only to choose life but to begin a life that is self-sufficient.

We hope you will welcome them. All proceeds given during Coffee Hour will be donated to Bright Hope and it is our wish that after Bright Hope's presentation, St. Nicholas will become an on-going benefactor.

“THIS IS MY BELOVED SON”

For years, John the Baptist preached along the banks of the Jordan River, urging those who listened to repent. Although scores of people answered his plea by being baptized, the Church will forever focus upon the day when John was approached by “the One Whose sandals I am not worthy to carry.” The BAPTISM OF CHRIST is celebrated by our Holy Church as the Feast Day of THEOPHANY. It is a day of great theological significance.

Theophany is not merely a historical account of our Saviour’s Baptism, nor is it simply a commemoration of the beginning of Christ’s public ministry. It is rather a wonderful manifestation of God’s glory, of His love for mankind, and of His mercy and compassion, as expressed in the Divine Person of Jesus Christ. He became Incarnate in order to become a sacrifice of salvation for the sake of all humanity.

This Feast Day is also remembered for the manifestation of the Holy Trinity to the world for the first time. On Theophany, God the Father speaks to us from Heaven, God the Son is baptized in the waters of the Jordan and God the Holy Spirit appears to us in the form of a dove.

In the early Church, Theophany was a day reserved for the baptism of catechumens, unceasingly repeating the words of St. Paul: As many as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. Alleluia. It has also been a long-standing custom to bless water on this day. Faithful Orthodox Christians look forward to having their homes blessed and sanctified with holy water during this season.
