Epistle Lesson for Today: 1 Timothy 4:9-15

Read by: Reader Nicholas Lezinsky

This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance. For to this end we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe. These things command and teach. Let no one despise your youth, but be an example to the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity. Till I come, give attention to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy with the laying on of the hands of the eldership. Meditate on these things; give yourself entirely to them, that your progress may be evident to all.

Epistle Lesson for Today: Hebrews 7:7-17

(The Meeting of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, in the Temple)

Now beyond all contradiction the lesser is blessed by the better. Here mortal men receive tithes, but there he receives them, of whom it is witnessed that he lives. Even Levi, who receives tithes, paid tithes through Abraham, so to speak, for he was still in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met him. Therefore, if perfection were through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need was there that another priest should rise according to the order of Melchizedek, and not be called according to the order of Aaron? For the priesthood being changed, of necessity there is also a change of the law. For He of whom these things are spoken belongs to another tribe, from which no man has officiated at the altar. For it is evident that our Lord arose from Judah, of which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood. And it is yet far more evident if, in the likeness of Melchizedek, there arises another priest who has come, not according to the law of a fleshly commandment, but according to the power of an endless life. For He testifies: "You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek."

Alleluia Verses - Tone 8

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

~~Come, let us rejoice in the Lord! Let us make a joyful noise to God our Savior!
(Ps 94/95:1)

~~Let us come before His face with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to
Him with songs of praise! (Ps 94/95:2)

Tone 8

~~Lord, now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace, according to Thy word!
(Lk 2:29)

Gospel Lesson for Today: Luke 19:1-10

Then Jesus entered and passed through Jericho. Now behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus who was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. And he sought to see who Jesus was, but could not because of the crowd, for he was of short stature. So he ran ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Him, for He was going to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, He looked up and saw him, and said to him, "Zacchaeus, make haste and come down, for today I must stay at your house." So he made haste and came down, and received Him joyfully. But when they saw it, they all complained, saying, "He has gone to be a guest with a man who is a sinner." Then Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord, I give half of my goods to the poor; and if I have taken anything from anyone by false accusation, I restore fourfold." And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham; for the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost."

Gospel Lesson for Today: Luke 2:22-40

(The Meeting of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, in the Temple)

Now when the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were completed, they brought Him to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord (as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every male who opens the womb shall be called holy to the LORD"), and to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the law of the Lord, "A pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons." And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon, and this man was just and devout, waiting for the Consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ. So he came by the Spirit into the temple. And when the parents brought in the Child Jesus, to do for Him according to the custom of the law, he took Him up in his arms and blessed God and said: "Lord, now You are letting Your servant depart in peace, according to Your word; for my eyes have seen Your salvation which You have prepared before the face of all peoples, a light to bring revelation to the Gentiles, and the glory of Your people Israel." And Joseph and His mother marveled at those things which were spoken of Him. Then Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary His mother, "Behold, this Child is destined for the fall and rising of many in Israel, and for a sign which will be spoken against (yes, a sword will pierce through your own soul also), that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed." Now there was one, Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, and had lived with a husband seven years from her virginity; and this woman was a widow of about eighty-four years, who did not depart from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day. And coming in that instant she gave thanks to the Lord, and spoke of Him to all those who looked for redemption in Jerusalem. So when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own city, Nazareth. And the Child grew and became strong in spirit, filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon Him.

Communion Hymn

~~Praise the Lord from the heavens! Praise Him in the highest! (Ps 148:1)

~~I will receive the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord. (Ps 115/116:13)

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Hymn to the Theotokos

Tone 3

O Virgin Theotokos, hope of all Christians, protect, preserve, and save those who hope in thee! In the shadow and letter of the Law, let us the faithful discern a figure: every male [child] that opens the womb is holy to God. Therefore we magnify the firstborn Word of the Father Who has no beginning, the Son firstborn of a Mother who had not known man.

Magnification

We magnify You, O Christ, the Giver of life; and we venerate Your most pure Mother, who this day according to the Law has brought You into the Temple of the Lord

Megalynaria of the 9th Ode Meeting of the Lord

(to be sung before communion)

O pure Virgin mother that which came to pass in you, is beyond thee understanding of angels and men.

Desiring to save Adam the creator took up abode in your pure and spotless womb, O virgin Mother of God.

All creation blesses you, O pure Virgin. And in faith glorifies you as the Theotokos.

O Mary Theotokos you are the mystic tongs, who conceived in your pure womb Christ Who is the Living Coal

O Virgin Theotokos, hope of all Christians protect, preserve and aid, all who put their hope in you.

CHRISTIANS ARE MARKED PEOPLE

St. Paul once said, "From now on let no man trouble me, for I bear on my body the marks of the Lord Jesus." This is a fascinating statement. Keep in mind it was the custom in those days to brand upon the body of a slave a mark of ownership. The burning by a brand was also used in cases of theft or great crime. So that, in St. Paul's time, anyone who was branded with a mark, was identified, either as a slave or criminal.

Yet St. Paul was not ashamed to apply this idea to himself and his Master, Christ. He said, "I am a slave, the slave of Christ, and I am not ashamed to carry with me this mark which identifies me as Christ's man."

Numerous whippings and stonings had left their scars on St. Paul, signifying the suffering that he bore for Christ. Fortunately, Christians are not subjected to such physical tortures in America today. Still, there should be some marks of our love for Christ, something about us that proudly identifies us as followers of Him. Through the mysteries of Baptism and of Chrismation, in which we are "sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit," there is placed an indelible mark upon us.

As we live our lives, the ownership of us by Christ should be obvious to the world. Our lives could be marked by kindness and love to others. There could be the mark of honesty, of worship, of service. There could be the mark of learning and loving God's Word.

One did not have to ask martyrs, confessors or saints their faith - it was crystal clear to all with whom they came into contact. Their way of living reflected Christ. Christians are marked people. Let all see the indelible seal of the cross that is upon us.
