Sunday Hymns from the Octoechos, Tone 1

Tone 1      Troparion      (Resurrection)

When the stone had been sealed by the Jews, while the soldiers were guarding Thy most pure body, Thou didst rise on the third day, O Savior, granting life to the world. The powers of heaven therefore cried to Thee, O Giver of Life: "Glory to Thy Resurrection, O Christ! Glory to Thy Kingdom! Glory to Thy dispensation, O Thou who lovest mankind!"

Tone 1      Troparion      (Feast)

Rejoice, O Virgin Theotokos, Full of Grace! From thee shone the Sun of Righteousness, Christ our God, enlightening those who sat in darkness. Rejoice and be glad, O righteous Elder, thou didst accept in thine arms the Redeemer of our souls, Who grants us the Resurrection!

Tone 4      Kontakion      (from the Lenten Triodion)

Let us flee from the pride of the Pharisee! Let us learn humility from the Publican's tears! Let us cry to our Savior: "Have mercy on us, O only merciful One!"

Tone 1      Kontakion      (Feast)

By Thy Nativity Thou didst sanctify the Virgin's womb and didst bless Simeon's hands, O Christ God. Now Thou hast come and saved us through love. Grant peace to all Orthodox Christians, O only Lover of Man!

Tone 1      Prokeimenon      (Resurrection)

~~Let Thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us / as we have set our hope on Thee!
~~Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous! Praise befits the just!

Tone 3      Prokeimenon      (Song of the Theotokos)

My soul doth magnify the Lord, / and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior.

Epistle Lesson for Today: 2 Timothy 3:10-15

Read by: Joe Kavchok

But you have carefully followed my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, love, perseverance, persecutions, afflictions, which happened to me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra - what persecutions I endured. And out of them all the Lord delivered me. Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. But evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. But you must continue in the things which you have learned and been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them, and that from childhood you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

Alleluia Verses - Tone 1

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

~~God gives vengeance to me, and subdues people under me! (Ps 17:48)

~~He magnifies the salvation of His King and deals mercifully with David, His anointed, and his seed forever. (Ps 17:51)

Tone 8

Lord, now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace, according to Thy word! (Lk 2:29)

Gospel Lesson for Today: Luke 18:10-14

"Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, 'God, I thank You that I am not like other men - extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I possess.' And the tax collector, standing afar off, would not so much as raise his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me a sinner!' I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

Communion Hymn

Praise the Lord from the heavens! Praise Him in the highest! (Ps 148:1)

I will receive the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord. (Ps 115/116:13)

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Hymn to the Theotokos

Tone 3

O Virgin Theotokos, hope of all Christians, protect, preserve, and save those who hope in thee! In the shadow and letter of the Law, let us the faithful discern a figure: every male [child] that opens the womb is holy to God. Therefore we magnify the firstborn Word of the Father Who has no beginning, the Son firstborn of a Mother who had not known man.

Megalynaria of the 9th Ode Meeting of the Lord

(to be sung before communion)

O pure Virgin mother that which came to pass in you, is beyond thee understanding of angels and men.

Desiring to save Adam the creator took up abode in your pure and spotless womb, O virgin Mother of God.

All creation blesses you, O pure Virgin. And in faith glorifies you as the Theotokos.

O Mary Theotokos you are the mystic tongs, who conceived in your pure womb Christ Who is the Living Coal

O Virgin Theotokos, hope of all Christians protect, preserve and aid, all who put their hope in you.

Orthodox Scouting Sunday - February 9, 2020

by The Most Rev. Archbishop David, Bishop of Sitka and Alaska

Each year we come to this Sunday in February to celebrate Scouting in our communities. Throughout our country we will join in recognizing the contributions they have all made to our churches and various institutions through their hard work, dedication to duty and love of country and Faith. They have a comradery not found in any other organization. This idea of fellowship in Faith, love and respect for others is the guiding principle that makes their work so beneficial and important.

Today I address not only our Scouting Youth and Leaders who are before you, but I also address the Families, parents and children in attendance who do not yet know the values that Scouting offers.

We live in an age where it is becoming increasingly difficult to find a harmonious existence with others. Some are quick to judge those not like themselves and others simply want to avoid contact as much as they can. Neither of these options are suitable for a population to coexist. There must be an effort made to not only coexist, but to communicate with and learn from each other so that as a society we can all improve our way of life and social existence.

As our children grow, parents all ponder many questions about their future. Every effort is made to protect them from harmful situations. We all hope they will have a life more fulfilling than our own. In our pursuit for our children we enroll them in various things to aid their maturity and growth. It may be a sports team, or social club, or a hobby group of like-minded people. There is no shortage of organizations vying for their attention. These organizations have no respect for your preferences in Faith, in fact, many times practices or even games are scheduled for Sunday mornings; this leaves the parent with a very difficult choice. Sad to say more often than not, it is the church that seems to be left out. Add to this that other families involved in such organizations may have no pious life at all and it is reflected in the way their own children behave at times.

Scouting gives us all of the good behaviors we aspire our children to have, while minimizing the bad ones. In Scouting, all youth are taught the Scout Oath, which ends with this phrase, "To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight." Each and every Scout lives by this code in every aspect of their life. We can even say, the more involved they are in Scouting, the more likely they are to practice these virtues. Is this not a desire we would want for all young men and women? We can offer it to them with Scouting, BSA.

So today I offer my most heartfelt thanks to the Scouts who work so hard to deliver the good work of Scouting to your community. I extend an invitation to parents of all ages, and grandparents as well, to get involved in Scouting. To help improve the life of those you care so much about; whose futures you long to improve, to help them become the fine outstanding citizens we know they are capable of becoming. And to the youth, your future can be even brighter than you know through your participation in Scouting, BSA.

In general, volunteers will routinely check the property and grounds 1x a month and identify areas that require attention or repair. Volunteers will report monthly findings to the parish administrative assistant so it can be determined if repairs will be contracted "out" or if they can be done by "in-house" volunteers with handy abilities. If you are interested in leading the monthly property checks and/or would like to be called upon for your handy services, please sign-up at the candle desk. ## PERCEPTION IS NOT REALITY!

There is an old saying with which we are all familiar: "Things are not always what they seem to be." These wise words certainly apply to the main characters in the Parable of THE PUBLICAN AND THE PHARISEE.

In the story, our Lord tells us that two men go to pray in the temple. The Pharisee, a well-respected leader in the Jewish religious community, presents God with a "litany" of his good works: he fasts, he tithes, he lives a spiritual life. The Publican, a despised tax collector, undoubtedly has nothing in his life of which he is proud. All he can offer to the Lord is a simple plea: "O God, be merciful to me, a sinner."

The perception of the Pharisee would be that he is a man to be held in high esteem. In reality, he is someone who did all of the right things for the wrong reasons! The opposite could be said of the Publican. While shunned by society, Christ tells us that his sincerity caused him to find favor with God. Truly, "he who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted." (Luke 18:14)

In his "Commentary on the Gospel of St. Luke," St. Cyril of Alexandria writes: "We must remember that when we pray, we are speaking to the God Who knows all things." On this, the first of the Pre-Lenten Sundays, let us remember that the Lord is not impressed with prideful boasting, for He knows the secrets of our hearts. Without real humility, there can be no true sorrow for our sins, and no reconciliation with God.
