Commemoration of the Holy Martyr Anthimus & Venerable Theoctistus

At the appointed time we begin:

O God cleanse me a sinner and have mercy on me (3).

Blessed is our God, always now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

O Heavenly King, the comforter, the Spirit of Truth, Who art everywhere present and fillest all things, treasury of blessings and giver of life, come and abide in us, and cleanse us from every impurity, and save our souls, O good One.

Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy on us. (3)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

O Most Holy Trinity, have mercy on us. Lord, cleanse us from our sins. Master, pardon our transgressions. Holy One, visit and heal our infirmities for Thy name's sake.

Lord have mercy. (3)

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Our Father, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power and the glory of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. (Amen.)

Lord have mercy (12) Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Come, let us worship God our King! (metania)

Come, let us worship and fall down before Christ, our King and our God! (metania)

Come, let us worship and fall down before Christ Himself our King and our God! (metania)

Psalm 104

Praise the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, you have become exceedingly glorious; you are clothed with majesty and honor. You clothe yourself with light as with a garment, and spread out the heavens like a curtain. You lay the beams of your chambers in the waters, and make the clouds your chariot, and walk upon the wings of the wind. You make winds your messengers, and flames of fire your ministers. You laid the foundations of the earth, that it never should move at any time. You cover it with the deep as with a garment; the waters stand above the hills. At your rebuke they fled; at the voice of your thunder they hastened away. They went up as high as the hills, and down to the valleys beneath, even to the place you had appointed for them. You have set bounds for them which they shall not pass; neither shall they again cover the earth. You send the springs into the rivers, which run among the hills. All beasts of the field drink thereof, and the wild donkeys quench their thirst. Beside them shall the birds of the air have their habitation and sing among the branches. You water the hills from above; the earth is filled with the fruit of your works. You bring forth grass for the cattle, and plants for the service of mankind, That they may bring food out of the earth, and wine that makes glad the heart, and oil to make a cheerful countenance, and bread to strengthen the heart. The trees of the LORD also are full of sap, even the cedars of Lebanon which he planted, Wherein the birds make their nests, and the fir trees are a dwelling for the stork. The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats, and so are the stony cliffs for the rock badgers.

You appointed the moon to mark the seasons, and the sun knows its going down. You make darkness that it may be night, in which all the beasts of the forest move.

The lions, roaring after their prey, seek their meat from God. The sun arises, and they go away together, and lay themselves down in their dens. Man goes forth to his work, and to his labor until the evening. O LORD, how manifold are your works; in wisdom you made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.

So is the great and wide sea also, in which are things creeping innumerable, creatures both small and great. There go the ships, and there is that Leviathan, whom you made to take its pleasure therein. These all wait upon you, that you may give them food in due season. When you give it to them, they gather it, and when you open your hand, they are filled with good things. When you hide your face, they are troubled; when you take away their breath, they die, and are turned again to their dust.

When you let your breath go forth, they shall be made, and you shall renew the face of the earth. The glorious majesty of the LORD shall endure for ever; the LORD shall rejoice in his works. He looks at the earth and it trembles; if he even touches the hills, they shall smoke. I will sing unto the LORD as long as I live; I will praise my God while I have my being, And so shall my words please him; my joy shall be in the LORD. As for sinners, they shall perish from the earth, and the ungodly shall come to an end. Praise the LORD, O my soul. Praise the LORD.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: both now and ever, and to ages of ages. Amen. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia. Glory to Thee, O God! (3)

Great Litany

The regular petitions are not intoned, instead:

Lord, have mercy! (12) Through the prayers of our holy fathers, O Lord Jesus Christ our God, have mercy on us. (Amen.)

Lord, I Call

Lord I call upon Thee, hear me! Hear me, O Lord! Lord, I call upon Thee, hear me! Receive the voice of my prayer, when I call upon Thee, hear me O Lord! Let my prayer arise, in Thy sight as incense, and let the lifting up of my hands, be an evening sacrifice, hear me O Lord!

6. If thou, Lord, shouldst mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand? But there is forgiveness with thee.

O divinely-wise and blessed one, with the dye of thy blood, thou hast brightened thy sacred and divine vesture: for, piously, thou hast gone from strength to strength, and from glory to glory; and, now, pray thou that our souls be given peace and great mercy.

5. For thy name's sake have I patiently waited for thee, O Lord; my soul hath waited patiently for thy word: My soul hath hoped in the Lord

Having, first, offered unto God the un-bloody sacrifice, as a most lawful priest, as a whole-burnt offering, and an acceptable sacrifice, later, with thine own blood, as a most-true martyr, thou hast offered thyself unto Christ, O divinely-eloquent, and most-honoured one, to Whom, pray for them that hymn thee.

4. From the morning watch until night, from the morning watch: Let Israel hope in the Lord.

Legions of martyrs hast thou lead to Christ, O father, by thy teachings, O Anthimus, and, by thine instructions, teaching and instructing, and, as an example, O divinely wise one, manifestly presenting thyself; with them, pray thou that our souls be given peace and great mercy.

3. For with the Lord, there is mercy; and, with Him, is plenteous redemption: And He shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

(Tone 1) O father Theoctistus, thy radiant memory gladdeneth the assemblies of monks by the beauties of thy life, the riches of thy wonders, and the splendours of thy gifts; pray to Christ, that our souls be given peace and great mercy.

2. O praise the Lord, all ye nations: Praise Him, all ye people.

O father Theoctistus, the demons stood in awe of thy patient abstinence, and were set at naught by thine unceasing prayers, O all-lauded one: for thou hast acquired Christ as a companion; to Whom, now, pray thou that our souls be given peace and great mercy.

1. For His merciful kindness is great towards us: And the truth of the Lord endureth forever.

O father Theoctistus, thou wast a dwelling place of God; for, having preserved that which is in His image, proclaiming the truth by thy life, thou hast shewn forth the calling of thy holy image, O all-wondrous one; pray to Christ, that our souls be given peace and great mercy.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit

(Tone 6) Thou hast been a most-lawful priest, even to thine end, O blessed Anthimus: for, celebrating, as a priest, the divine and ineffable mysteries, thou hast shed thy blood for Christ God, and hast brought thyself to Him as a right acceptable sacrifice; wherefore, as thou possessest boldness before Him, earnestly pray for them that, with faith and love, keep thine most-honoured memory, that they that honour it be delivered from all temptations, misfortunes, and evil circumstances.

Now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

(Tone 6) Envyng thy flock, O all-pure one, the wicked adversary ever striveth to make it his food; but, O Theotokos, deliver us from his harm.

Wisdom! Let us attend!

Gladsome Light

O Gladsome Light of the holy glory of the immortal Father, heavenly, holy, blessed, O Jesus Christ! Now that we have come to the setting of the sun, and behold the light of evening, we praise God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit! For meet it is at all times to worship Thee with voices of praise O Son of God, and Giver of Life. Therefore all the world doth glorify Thee!

Evening Prokeimenon

Wisdom! Let us Attend! The Prokeimenon in the 5th tone: Save me, O God, by Thy name and judge me by Thy strength!

Verse: Hear my prayer, O God, hearken to the words of my mouth!

Vouchsafe, O Lord

Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this night without sin. Blessed art Thou, O Lord, the God of our fathers, and praised and glorified is Thy Name forever. Amen. Let Thy mercy be upon us, O Lord, even as we have set our hope on Thee. Blessed art Thou, O Lord, teach me Thy statutes! Blessed art Thou, O Master, make me to understand Thy statutes! Blessed art Thou, O Holy One, enlighten me with Thy statutes! Thy mercy, O Lord, endureth forever. O despise not the works of Thy hands. To Thee belongeth worship, to Thee belongeth praise, to Thee belongeth glory: to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen

Litany of Supplication

The regular petitions are not intoned, instead:

Lord, have mercy! (12) Through the prayers of our holy fathers, O Lord Jesus Christ our God, have mercy on us. (Amen.)

Aposticha

(Tone 3) Your sound went forth into all the earth, O holy apostles; and ye destroyed the deception of the idols, preaching the knowledge of God. Behold, your struggle is good, O blessed ones; wherefore, we hymn and glorify your memory.

*Unto thee lift I up mine eyes, O thou that dwellest in the heavens. Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God *
Until He have mercy upon us.*

As branches of the Life-bearing Vine, O glorious apostles, ye brought yourselves to God as the fruit of piety; wherefore, as ye have boldness before Him, ask that He grant peace and great mercy to our souls.

*Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us, for we are exceedingly filled with contempt. Our soul is exceedingly filled with humiliation; let reproach come upon the wealthy * And abasement on the proud.*

Thy martyrs, O Lord, rendered steadfast by faith, strengthened by hope, spiritually united by the love of Thy Cross, overcame the tyranny of the Enemy, and, having gained crowns, together with the bodiless ones, pray for our souls.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

(Tone 6) O venerable father, throughout all the earth, thy preaching of correction hath gone forth; wherefore, in the heavens, hast thou found the reward for thy labours: thou hast quelled the hosts of the devils, and hast reached the orders of the angels, unto whose life without spot thou hast attained: having boldness before Christ God, ask thou peace for our souls.

Now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

(Tone 6) My heart's eye I lift up unto thee, O Mistress; disdain not my feeble sighing; at the hour when thy Son shall come to judge the world, be thou my protection and helper.

St. Symeon's Prayer

Lord, now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace, according to Thy Word, for mine eyes have seen Thy salvation, which Thou hast prepared before the face of all people: a light to enlighten the Gentiles and the glory of Thy people, Israel.

Trisagion (Thrice Holy)

Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy on us. (3)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

O Most Holy Trinity, have mercy on us. Lord, cleanse us from our sins. Master, pardon our transgressions. Holy One, visit and heal our infirmities for Thy name's sake.

Lord have mercy. (3)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Our Father, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power and the glory of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. (Amen.)

Troparia

(Tone 4) As thou sharedst in the ways of the apostles, and occupiedst their throne, thou foundest thine activity to be a way to the vision of God, O divinely inspired one. Wherefore, ordering the word of truth, thou sufferedst for the Faith even to the shed-ding of thy blood. O hieromartyr Anthimus, entreat Christ God that our souls be saved.

Glory to the Father and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. (Tone 8)

With the streams of thy tears thou cultivatedst the barren desert; and with sighs from the depths of thy soul thou renderedst thy labours fruitful an hundredfold; and thou becamest a beacon for the whole world resplendent with miracles. Entreat Christ God, O our ve-nerable father Theoctistus, that our souls be saved.

Now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

(Tone 8) Pure Theotokos and gate of eternal life: save from danger those that run to thee with faith to glorify thy holy childbearing for the salvation of our souls.

Dismissal

Wisdom! Blessed be He Who Is, Christ our God, always now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen. Preserve O God, the Holy Orthodox faith of Orthodox Christians, unto ages of ages.

Most holy Theotokos, save us! More honorable than the cherubim, and more glorious beyond compare than the seraphim: without corruption thou gavest birth to God the Word. True Theotokos, we magnify thee!

Glory to Thee, O Christ our God, and our only sure hope, glory to Thee!

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Lord have Mercy (3)

Lord Bless.

May Christ our True God, through the prayers of His most pure Mother, of the glorious and all-laudable Apostles, of Nicholas the Wonderworker, Archbishop of Myra in Lycia, the patron of this holy house, of the Holy Martyr Anthimus & Venerable Theoctistus, who we commemorate today, of all those Saints who have shone forth in this North American land, of the holy and righteous ancestors of God, Joachim and Anna, and of all the saints, have mercy on us and save us, for as much as He is good and loves mankind. Amen.

Heavenly Father...

Physician of our souls and bodies, Who has sent Your only-begotten Son to heal every sickness and infirmity, visit and heal us, Your Servants, from all physical and spiritual ailments, through the grace of Your Son, Jesus Christ. Grant to us patience in this sickness, strength of body, and recovery of health. Lord, You have taught us through Your Word to pray for each other that we may be healed. For You are the source of healing, and to You we give glory; Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.
