The Holy Prophet Daniel

At the appointed time we begin:

O God cleanse me a sinner and have mercy on me (3).

Blessed is our God, always now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

O Heavenly King, the comforter, the Spirit of Truth, Who art everywhere present and fillest all things, treasury of blessings and giver of life, come and abide in us, and cleanse us from every impurity, and save our souls, O good One.

Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy on us. (3)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

O Most Holy Trinity, have mercy on us. Lord, cleanse us from our sins. Master, pardon our transgressions. Holy One, visit and heal our infirmities for Thy name's sake.

Lord have mercy. (3)

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Our Father, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power and the glory of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. (Amen.)

Lord have mercy (12) Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Come, let us worship God our King! (metania)

Come, let us worship and fall down before Christ, our King and our God! (metania)

Come, let us worship and fall down before Christ Himself our King and our God! (metania)

Psalm 104

Praise the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, you have become exceedingly glorious; you are clothed with majesty and honor. You clothe yourself with light as with a garment, and spread out the heavens like a curtain. You lay the beams of your chambers in the waters, and make the clouds your chariot, and walk upon the wings of the wind. You make winds your messengers, and flames of fire your ministers. You laid the foundations of the earth, that it never should move at any time. You cover it with the deep as with a garment; the waters stand above the hills. At your rebuke they fled; at the voice of your thunder they hastened away. They went up as high as the hills, and down to the valleys beneath, even to the place you had appointed for them. You have set bounds for them which they shall not pass; neither shall they again cover the earth. You send the springs into the rivers, which run among the hills. All beasts of the field drink thereof, and the wild donkeys quench their thirst. Beside them shall the birds of the air have their habitation and sing among the branches. You water the hills from above; the earth is filled with the fruit of your works. You bring forth grass for the cattle, and plants for the service of mankind, That they may bring food out of the earth, and wine that makes glad the heart, and oil to make a cheerful countenance, and bread to strengthen the heart. The trees of the LORD also are full of sap, even the cedars of Lebanon which he planted, Wherein the birds make their nests, and the fir trees are a dwelling for the stork. The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats, and so are the stony cliffs for the rock badgers. You appointed the moon to mark the seasons, and the sun knows its going down. You make darkness that it may be night, in which all the beasts of the forest move. The lions, roaring after their prey, seek their meat from God. The sun arises, and they go away together, and lay themselves down in their dens. Man goes forth to his work, and to his labor until the evening. O LORD, how manifold are your works; in wisdom you made them all; the earth is full of your creatures. So is the great and wide sea also, in which are things creeping innumerable, creatures both small and great. There go the ships, and there is that Leviathan, whom you made to take its pleasure therein. These all wait upon you, that you may give them food in due season. When you give it to them, they gather it, and when you open your hand, they are filled with good things. When you hide your face, they are troubled; when you take away their breath, they die, and are turned again to their dust. When you let your breath go forth, they shall be made, and you shall renew the face of the earth. The glorious majesty of the LORD shall endure for ever; the LORD shall rejoice in his works. He looks at the earth and it trembles; if he even touches the hills, they shall smoke. I will sing unto the LORD as long as I live; I will praise my God while I have my being, And so shall my words please him; my joy shall be in the LORD. As for sinners, they shall perish from the earth, and the ungodly shall come to an end. Praise the LORD, O my soul. Praise the LORD.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: both now and ever, and to ages of ages. Amen. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia. Glory to Thee, O God! (3)

Great Litany

The regular petitions are not intoned, instead:

Lord, have mercy! (12) Through the prayers of our holy fathers, O Lord Jesus Christ our God, have mercy on us. (Amen.)

Lord, I Call

(Tone 8) Lord I call upon Thee, hear me! Hear me, O Lord! Lord, I call upon Thee, hear me! Receive the voice of my prayer, when I call upon Thee, hear me O Lord! Let my prayer arise, in Thy sight as incense, and let the lifting up of my hands, be an evening sacrifice, hear me O Lord!

6. If thou, Lord, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand? But there is forgiveness with thee.

The wondrous Daniel, having made his heart the pure abode of the Spirit, and illumined by Him, manifestly proclaimeth the revelation of things to come: adorned with the splendour of prophecy, he clearly interpreteth the hidden dreams of the most-iniquitous and mighty kings.

5. For thy name's sake have I patiently waited for thee, O Lord; my soul hath waited patiently for thy word: My soul hath hoped in the Lord

Having rendered thy body strong beforehand with intense fasting, thou hast closed the mouths of the lions: for, standing in their midst, O wondrous prophet, and lifting thine eyes to our good God, thou hast remained unharmed through the ineffable power of Him that most-gloriously accomplisheth all things, the deliverer of our souls.

4. From the morning watch until night, from the morning watch: Let Israel hope in the Lord.

O wondrous prophet, thou hast beheld the unapproachable One, the just judge, sitting upon a throne, surrounded by angels; marvelling at the awesome and terrible sight, thou hast described it for all who came after, recounting the second coming of our incarnate God.

3. For, with the Lord, there is mercy; and, with Him, is plenteous redemption: And He shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

Observing the God-given laws, O all-blessed ones, ye defiled not yourselves with abominable foods; but, keeping incorrupt the beauty of your souls, ye preserved the flower of your flesh untainted and unwithered, and your splendour comely, for the Master that glorifieth His favoured ones.

2. O praise the Lord, all ye nations: Praise Him, all ye people.

Enkindled by the divine flame, the youths prevailed over the fire: for the honoured ones were seen to be bedewed therein, forming a most-splendid choir, singing in melodious hymnody: for Daniel rejoiced, beholding the immutable kingdom of Christ, in that he is an all-excellent prophet.

1. For His merciful kindness is great towards us: And the truth of the Lord endureth forever.

Marvelling at the wisdom of thy words, and the understanding of the youths, O right-wondrous Daniel, the tyrants appointed you to rule, and to govern, the land of Chaldea, O honoured ones: for the adversary knew to marvel, most manifestly, at your virtue and splendour of life: for ye restrained the passions gaining power over you.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

(Tone 2) Today, the prophet Daniel hath spiritually assembled us, O ye faithful, and hath laid an abundant banquet of the virtues for rich and poor, paupers, wanderers, and household servants, filling a noetic cup with the water of piety, gladdening the hearts of the faithful, and imparting the grace of the Holy Spirit; for he is a most splendid luminary, who, shining forth in the world, cast down all the worship of the Assyrians, and shut the mouths of the untamed beasts; with him, let the three youths be praised, who, though not gold by nature, were shewn to be tried like gold: for the fire of the furnace melted them together, yet preserved them whole; and naphtha, sulphur, and tinder, crowned them; may the Lord, Who hath led us to the turning of the year, vouchsafe that we also may attain unto the lordly and honourable day of the nativity of Christ, Who, through their prayers, bestoweth upon us cleansing of sins and great mercy.

Now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Come ye all; and, with faith, let us celebrate the fore-feast of the nativity of Christ, noetically, offering up hymns of glorification like the star of the magi; and, with the shepherds, let us cry aloud: 'The deliverance-of-the-nations hath come forth from the Virgin's womb, summoning the faithful'.

Wisdom! Let us attend!

Gladsome Light

O Gladsome Light of the holy glory of the immortal Father, heavenly, holy, blessed, O Jesus Christ! Now that we have come to the setting of the sun, and behold the light of evening, we praise God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit! For meet it is at all times to worship Thee with voices of praise O Son of God, and Giver of Life. Therefore all the world doth glorify Thee!

Evening Prokeimenon

Wisdom! Let us Attend! The Prokeimenon in the 5th tone: Save me, O God, by Thy name and judge me by Thy strength!

Verse: Hear my prayer, O God, hearken to the words of my mouth!

Vouchsafe, O Lord

Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this night without sin. Blessed art Thou, O Lord, the God of our fathers, and praised and glorified is Thy Name forever. Amen. Let Thy mercy be upon us, O Lord, even as we have set our hope on Thee. Blessed art Thou, O Lord, teach me Thy statutes! Blessed art Thou, O Master, make me to understand Thy statutes! Blessed art Thou, O Holy One, enlighten me with Thy statutes! Thy mercy, O Lord, endureth forever. O despise not the works of Thy hands. To Thee belongeth worship, to Thee belongeth praise, to Thee belongeth glory: to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen

Litany of Supplication

The regular petitions are not intoned, instead:

Lord, have mercy! (12) Through the prayers of our holy fathers, O Lord Jesus Christ our God, have mercy on us. (Amen.)

Aposticha

(Tone 2) O Saviour, Thou hast magnified throughout the whole world the names of Thy chief apostles; for they learnt the ineffable things of heaven, and granted healings unto those on earth. They healed diseases by their shadows alone. They who were fishermen worked wonders; they who were Jews theologized the doctrines of grace. O Thou Who art full of loving kindness, for their sake, grant us great mercy.

Unto thee lift I up mine eyes, O thou that dwellest in the heavens. Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God: Until he have mercy upon us.

We, who are ever assailed by the actions of the unrighteous, yet truly find refuge in Thee, Who art God, offer unto Thee the voice of Thy disciples, saying: Save us, O our Instructor, for we are perishing; and we pray: Show now to our enemies that Thou protectest men, and, through the supplications of the apostles, savest them from misfortunes, overlooking their sins in Thy great goodness. O Lord, glory to Thee.

Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us, for we are exceedingly filled with contempt. Our soul is exceedingly filled with humiliation; let reproach come upon the wealthy: And abasement on the proud.

Great is the glory ye have acquired by faith: for, ye not only vanquished the enemy in your sufferings, but, in death, ye drive away evil spirits and heal the infirm, O physicians of souls and bodies; pray ye to the Lord, that our souls find mercy.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

(Tone 6) Daniel, the man of divine desires, seeing Thee, O Lord, the stone not cut by human hands, foretold that Thou wouldst, without seed, be born a babe, the Word incarnate of the Virgin, God immutable, the Saviour of our souls.

St. Symeon's Prayer

Lord, now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace, according to Thy Word, for mine eyes have seen Thy salvation, which Thou hast prepared before the face of all people: a light to enlighten the Gentiles and the glory of Thy people, Israel.

Trisagion (Thrice Holy)

Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy on us. (3)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

O Most Holy Trinity, have mercy on us. Lord, cleanse us from our sins. Master, pardon our transgressions. Holy One, visit and heal our infirmities for Thy name's sake.

Lord have mercy. (3)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Our Father, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power and the glory of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. (Amen.)

Troparia

(Tone 2) Great are the accomplishments of faith; for the three holy youths rejoiced in the fountain of flames as though in the waters of rest: and the prophet Daniel appeared, a shepherd to the lions as though they were sheep; so, by their prayers, O Christ God, save our souls.

Glory to the Father and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

(Tone 2) Through thee, ever-virgin Theotokos, we have become partakers of the divine nature; for thou gavest birth to the Incarnate God for our sake. Therefore, we all devoutly magnify thee.

Dismissal

Wisdom! Blessed be He Who Is, Christ our God, always now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen. Preserve O God, the Holy Orthodox faith of Orthodox Christians, unto ages of ages.

Most holy Theotokos, save us! More honorable than the cherubim, and more glorious beyond compare than the seraphim: without corruption thou gavest birth to God the Word. True Theotokos, we magnify thee!

Glory to Thee, O Christ our God, and our only sure hope, glory to Thee!

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Lord have Mercy (3)

Lord Bless.

May Christ our True God, through the prayers of His most pure Mother, of the glorious and all-laudable Apostles, of Nicholas the Wonderworker, Archbishop of Myra in Lycia, the patron of this holy house, of The Holy Prophet Daniel, who we commemorate today, of all those Saints who have shone forth in this North American land, of the holy and righteous ancestors of God, Joachim and Anna, and of all the saints, have mercy on us and save us, for as much as He is good and loves mankind. Amen.

Heavenly Father...

Physician of our souls and bodies, Who has sent Your only-begotten Son to heal every sickness and infirmity, visit and heal us, Your Servants, from all physical and spiritual ailments, through the grace of Your Son, Jesus Christ. Grant to us patience in this sickness, strength of body, and recovery of health. Lord, You have taught us through Your Word to pray for each other that we may be healed. For You are the source of healing, and to You we give glory; Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.
