The Expulsion of Adam from Paradise

The Holy Forty Martyrs of Sebaste

Tone 4 Troparion (Resurrection)

When the women disciples of the Lord learned from the angel the joyous message of Thy Resurrection, they cast away the ancestral curse and elatedly told the apostles: "Death is overthrown! Christ God is risen, granting the world great mercy!"

Tone 1 Troparion (Holy 40 Martyrs)

Through the sufferings which Thy holy Forty Martyrs endured for Thy sake, O Lord, we beseech Thee, O Lover of mankind: "Heal all of our infirmities!"

Tone 6 Kontakion (Holy 40 Martyrs)

You have abandoned all earthly armies, cleaving to the heavenly Master, O Forty Martyrs of the Lord. Having passed through fire and water, O blessed ones, you have fittingly received heavenly glory and many crowns.

Tone 6 Kontakion (from the Lenten Triodion)

O Master, Teacher of wisdom, Bestower of virtue, Who teachest the thoughtless and protectest the poor, strengthen and enlighten my heart! O Word of the Father, let me not restrain my mouth from crying to Thee: "Have mercy on me, a transgressor, O merciful Lord!"

Tone 8 Prokeimenon (from the Lenten Triodion)

Pray and make your vows before the Lord, our God! (Ps. 75:10a)

In Judah God is known; His name is great in Israel. (Ps. 75:1)

Tone 5 Prokeimenon (Holy 40 Martyrs)

Thou, O Lord, shalt protect us and preserve us from this generation forever.
(Ps. 11:7)

Epistle

Read by Tricia Metz

(Romans 13:11-14:4) And do this, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep; for now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed. The night is far spent, the day is at hand. Therefore let us cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. Let us walk properly, as in the day, not in revelry and drunkenness, not in lewdness and lust, not in strife and envy. But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to fulfill its lusts. Receive one who is weak in the faith, but not to disputes over doubtful things. For one believes he may eat all things, but he who is weak eats only vegetables. Let not him who eats despise him who does not eat, and let not him who does not eat judge him who eats; for God has received him. Who are you to judge another's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. Indeed, he will be made to stand, for God is able to make him stand.

(Hebrews 12:1-10 (Holy 40 Martyrs)) Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. For consider Him who endured such hostility from sinners against Himself, lest you become weary and discouraged in your souls. You have not yet resisted to bloodshed, striving against sin. And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as to sons: "My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD, nor be discouraged when you are rebuked by Him; for whom the LORD loves He chastens, and scourges every son whom He receives." If you endure chastening, God deals with you as with sons; for what son is there whom a father does not chasten? But if you are without chastening, of which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate and not sons. Furthermore, we have had human fathers who corrected us, and we paid them respect. Shall we not much more readily be in subjection to the Father of spirits and live? For they indeed for a few days chastened us as seemed best to them, but He for our profit, that we may be partakers of His holiness.

Tone 6

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

It is good to give thanks to the Lord, to sing praises to Thy Name, O Most High. (Ps. 91:1)

To declare Thy mercy in the morning, and Thy truth by night. (Ps. 91:2a)

Tone 4

Make a joyful noise to God, all the earth! Sing of His name, give to Him glorious praise! (Ps. 65:1)

Gospel

(Matthew 6:14-21) For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. Moreover, when you fast, do not be like the hypocrites, with a sad countenance. For they disfigure their faces that they may appear to men to be fasting. Assuredly, I say to you, they have their reward. But you, when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, so that you do not appear to men to be fasting, but to your Father who is in the secret place; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly. Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal; but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

(Matthew 20:1-16 (Holy 40 Martyrs)) For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. Now when he had agreed with the laborers for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And he went out about the third hour and saw others standing idle in the marketplace, and said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you.' So they went. Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did likewise. And about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing idle, and said to them, 'Why have you been standing here idle all day?' They said to him, 'Because no one hired us.' He said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right you will receive.' So when evening had come, the owner of the vineyard said to his steward, 'Call the laborers and give them their wages, beginning with the last to the first.' And when those came who were hired about the eleventh hour, they each received a denarius. But when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise received each a denarius. And when they had received it, they complained against the landowner, saying, 'These last men have worked only one hour, and you made them equal to us who have borne the burden and the heat of the day.' But he answered one of them and said, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong. Did you not agree with me for a denarius? Take what is yours and go your way. I wish to give to this last man the same as to you. Is it not lawful for me to do what I wish with my own things? Or is your eye evil because I am good?' So the last will be first, and the first last. For many are called, but few chosen."

Communion Hymn

Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest! (Ps. 148:1)

Rejoice in the Lord, O you righteous! Praise befits the just. (Ps. 32:1)

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Now The Powers

A Journey Through Great Lent

With

St. Nicolas Russian Orthodox Church Choir

Bethlehem, PA

Nicholas Lezinsky, Director

Now The Powers Of Heaven...

For the Orthodox Christian, the liturgical year revolves around the celebration of the death, burial and resurrection of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. The entire worship of the Orthodox Church is centered around Pascha, which is the greatest and most exalted Feast giving it the honor of being the "Feast of all Feasts" in the Orthodox Church. Orthodox Christians live from Pascha to Pascha and as such, make an annual pilgrimage, a journey towards Pascha, experiencing the transformation of the tragedy of tragedies into the ultimate victory, giving us the foretaste of the eternal joy that awaits us, the glory of the victory where "death is no more!"

Long before the actual beginning of Great Lent, the Church announces its approach and invites us to meditate on its significance. Knowing our own human nature, the Church calls our attention to its seriousness and prepares us for what lies before us with the themes of desire, humility, returning to God, judgment and forgiveness. We are ready to begin the 40 day journey of Great Lent in an atmosphere and state of mind which for the duration of Great Lent will permeate our entire life.

This atmosphere is brought about by the physical changes the church experiences: the dark color purple vestments and altar cloths, the length of the services, the penitential prayers with prostration, and the singing of melodies in the minor key. The meaning and the spirit of this penitential season find their first and most important expression in worship. The entire Church and not only individuals acquires a penitential spirit and the beautiful Lenten services, more than anything else, help us to deepen our spiritual vision. The spirit of Great Lent is most beautifully expressed in the liturgical music of the Orthodox Church. The music on this recording takes you on a moving, spiritual journey to Pascha, beginning with the Pre-Lenten season and ending with the triumphant Paschal proclamation that "Christ is Risen...!"

The journey begins with a pious hymn to the Virgin Mary, the Theotokos, "whose humility made her the joy of all creation and the greatest revelation of beauty on earth", and continues with...

...themes from the Pre-Lenten season;

...the Great Vespers on Forgiveness Sunday evening, when the Vespereal hymns announce the coming of Great Lent and, beyond Lent, the approach of Pascha; the day's Great Prokeimenon announcing with a unique melody the beginning of Lent;

...the Great Penitential Canon of St Andrew of Crete. Written in the 7th century by one of the greatest hymn-writers of the Orthodox Church, this Canon is the purest expression of repentance as its content sets the tone and spirit the true dimension of repentance.

...the Liturgy of the Presanctified Gifts, a special evening service of the Communion prescribed on Wednesdays and Fridays of Great Lent;

...The Bridegroom Matins of the first three days of Great and Holy Week. The special hymns on these days remind us of the eschatological meaning of Pascha challenging us with this ultimate meaning of Pascha and to prepare us to the understanding and acceptance of it;

...The service of Holy Thursday evening emphasizing the Passion of Christ as "the sin of all sins, the crime of all crimes." The two events of this day, the Last Supper of Christ with His disciples and the betrayal of Judas reveal the mystery of this unique day and its services, where light and darkness, joy and sorrow are mixed, challenging us with the choice on which depends the eternal destiny of each one of us.

...The sorrow and darkness of Holy Friday, the day of Christ's Passion, Death and Burial. The services of Holy Friday reveal the mystery of this day and make us participate in it. When the image of Christ is placed in the tomb and we stand at the grave of our Lord singing the moving Troparion, we contemplate His death. This prepares us for the ultimate victory and certitude that "death will trample down death..."

...The Vespers and Liturgy of Holy Saturday connects Great and Holy Friday with Pascha. The commemoration of the cross with the day of His Resurrection, provides us with rich hymnography contemplating the mystery of Christ's life-giving death. There is a day of sorrow and then, there is the day of joy. Truly Great and Holy Saturday is a day of transformation. The long day of Great and Holy Saturday is spent in quiet meditation as we wait for the Pascha night and the fullness of the Paschal joy when we hear at midnight: "Christ is Risen!" before we enter into the celebration of His Holy Resurrection.

In this recording we share with you the rich and powerful message of the Church's teaching about Great Lent and Pascha as conveyed through her liturgical worship. As we rediscover the meaning of Great Lent and Pascha, may we also rediscover God Himself as we return to Him all that which He gave us in His infinite love and mercy.

Now The Powers is available on CD for $15. Please contact Nicholas Lezinsky if you would like to purchase a copy.

Heavenly Father...
