Care Ministry

The goal of the St Nicholas Care Ministry is to pay special care to the needs of the members of our church and provide any extra support they may require. Some of our duties include planning and facilitating special events (bridal/baby showers, birthdays, anniversaries etc), delivery and preparation of meals and/or essentials to homebound members of the parish as well as any other support we can give to make everyone feel included, welcome and cared for.

Our ministry would like to invite anyone interested in helping out to contact Guliana Holobeny. There are so many ways to contribute so all ages are welcome to participate!

Divine Liturgy

Sunday, February 16, 2025
Sunday of the Prodigal Son

Tone 1      Troparion      (Resurrection)

When the stone had been sealed by the Jews, while the soldiers were guarding Thy most pure body, Thou didst rise on the third day, O Savior, granting life to the world. The powers of heaven therefore cried to Thee, O Giver of Life: "Glory to Thy Resurrection, O Christ! Glory to Thy Kingdom! Glory to Thy dispensation, O Thou Who lovest mankind!"

Tone 4      Troparion      (St. Nicholas of Japan)

Thou didst share in the ways of the Apostles and sat upon their throne, O faithful and divinely-wise servant of Christ, chosen harp of the divine Spirit, vessel over-flowing with the love of Christ, and Enlightener of Japan, O Holy Hierarch Nicholas, Equal of the Apostles, entreat the Life-Giving Trinity on behalf of all thy flock, and for the whole world.

Tone 3      Kontakion      (from the Lenten Triodion)

I have recklessly forgotten Thy glory, O Father; and among sinners I have scattered the riches which Thou hadst given me. Therefore I cry to Thee like the Prodigal: "I have sinned before Thee, O compassionate Father; receive me a penitent, and make me as one of Thy hired servants!"

Tone 4      Kontakion      (St. Nicholas of Japan)

O Hierarch Nicholas, Equal of the Apostles, the country of Japan received thee as a sojourner and a foreigner At first thou didst regard thyself as a stranger, but by pouring forth the warmth and light of Christ, thou didst change thine enemies into spiritual sons, and by imparting the grace of God to them, thou didst establish the Church of Christ; and now pray for thy sons and daughters that they may cry out, "Rejoice, our good shepherd."

Tone 1      Prokeimenon      (Resurrection)

Let Thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us as we have set our hope on Thee! (Ps. 32:22)
Rejoice in the Lord, O you righteous! Praise befits the just! (Ps. 32:1)

Epistle

Read by Reader Michael Metz

(1 Corinthians 6:12-20) All things are lawful for me, but all things are not helpful. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any. Foods for the stomach and the stomach for foods, but God will destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for sexual immorality but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. And God both raised up the Lord and will also raise us up by His power. Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and make them members of a harlot? Certainly not! Or do you not know that he who is joined to a harlot is one body with her? For "the two," He says, "shall become one flesh." But he who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with Him. Flee sexual immorality. Every sin that a man does is outside the body, but he who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body. Or do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and you are not your own? For you were bought at a price; therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's.

Tone 1

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

God gives vengeance unto me, and subdues people under me. (Ps. 17:48)

He magnifies the salvation of the King and deals mercifully with David, His anointed, and his seed forever. (Ps. 17:51)

Gospel

(Luke 15:11-32) Then He said: "A certain man had two sons. And the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the portion of goods that falls to me.' So he divided to them his livelihood. And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, journeyed to a far country, and there wasted his possessions with prodigal living. But when he had spent all, there arose a severe famine in that land, and he began to be in want. Then he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. And he would gladly have filled his stomach with the pods that the swine ate, and no one gave him anything. But when he came to himself, he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you, and I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

Make me like one of your hired servants.'" And he arose and came to his father. But when he was still a great way off, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and fell on his neck and kissed him. And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight, and am no longer worthy to be called your son.' But the father said to his servants, 'Bring out the best robe and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand and sandals on his feet. And bring the fatted calf here and kill it, and let us eat and be merry; for this my son was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.' And they began to be merry. Now his older son was in the field. And as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing. So he called one of the servants and asked what these things meant. And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and because he has received him safe and sound, your father has killed the fatted calf.' But he was angry and would not go in. Therefore his father came out and pleaded with him. So he answered and said to his father, 'Lo, these many years I have been serving you; I never transgressed your commandment at any time; and yet you never gave me a young goat, that I might make merry with my friends. But as soon as this son of yours came, who has devoured your livelihood with harlots, you killed the fatted calf for him.' And he said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that I have is yours. It was right that we should make merry and be glad, for your brother was dead and is alive again, and was lost and is found.'"

Communion Hymn

Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest! (Ps. 148:1)
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Nicholas OF JAPAN

BORN: Smolensk, Russia
REPOSED: Tokyo, Japan
VOCATION: Monastic, Missionary,
Bishop

DATES: 1836–February 3, 1912
FEAST DAY: February 15
SEE ALSO: St. Innocent of Alaska Vol. 1

WHEN ST. NICHOLAS was a child, he dreamed of being a soldier but changed his mind after hearing about exciting overseas missionary work and reading a book about Japan. In 1860 while finishing seminary, he answered a call to become chaplain at the Russian consulate in Japan. He was tonsured a monk, ordained a deacon and then a priest, and traveled to Japan. At that time it was illegal to preach Christianity in Japan. St. Nicholas immersed himself in learning the Japanese language and culture, eventually becoming a fluent speaker of Japanese. Some of the early converts included a Shinto priest named Sawabe and a doctor named Sakaya. In 1873 the Japanese government granted St. Nicholas's Orthodox mission official religious toleration, and he was made the first bishop of Japan. He then moved to Tokyo, built a cathedral, and established schools for catechumens and the instruction of Japanese clergy. By this time there were more than 1,000 baptized converts. St. Nicholas was especially concerned with building an ethnically Japanese church for the Japanese people, using their own language in worship. St. Nicholas worked constantly until his peaceful repose in 1912.

FASCINATING FACTS

Japan is nicknamed "Land of the Rising Sun," a translation of the Chinese word Nippon, which literally means "origin of the sun." Japan's position as the only land east of China makes it appear that the sun rises from that land.

St. Nicholas had to overcome many cultural obstacles in Japan. For example, the historic Japanese code of honor sees the love of enemies as cowardly.

Upon his passing, St. Nicholas was immediately venerated as Equal to the Apostles for his incredible witness and labors. At his death, there were over 33,000 Orthodox Christians in Japan.

St. Nicholas was influenced by the good work of his fellow missionary St. Innocent of Alaska, whom he met on his way from St. Petersburg to Japan.

St. Nicholas was once approached by an angry samurai warrior who yelled, "Foreigners must die!" Inspired by the peaceful and loving nature of St. Nicholas, this same warrior eventually became the first Japanese priest.

Lenten Soup Sunday

Our Lenten soup Sundays are back and we need your help! While we love making new and delicious soups for our fellow parishioners the task has become a bit overwhelming as the sale has grown! We know how many fantastic cooks we have at St. Nicholas and we'd love to have volunteers donate soups each week. We will provide the quart containers if you will fill them (about 10 per soup)! Please consider joining us in this Lenten mission! If you're interested in helping please contact Marina Murgia (610) 533-4719 or Lori Lezinsky (484) 375-3874 Thank you!

Prepare for Lent with the St. Nicholas Choir CD Now The Powers

For the Orthodox Christian, the liturgical year revolves around the celebration of the death, burial and resurrection of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. In this recording we share with you the rich and powerful message of the Church's teaching about Great Lent and Pascha as conveyed through her liturgical worship. The music collection of over 25 hymns takes you on a moving, spiritual journey to Pascha, beginning with Pre-Lenten season and ending with the triumphant Paschal proclamation that "Christ is Risen...!" Contact Nick Lezinsky if you are interested in purchasing a CD.

Women's Psalter Group - Great Lent 2025

This year we are excited to be organizing a Women's Psalter group for Great Lent! What is a Psalter group? A group of ladies who want to pray together and deepen their spiritual journey during the Lenten fast. We hope to have at least 20 or more women sign up. Each day you will read a particular section of the Psalter (Psalms). Since the Psalter is traditionally broken up into 20 Kathisma readings, everyday during the Lenten fast we would collectively be reading the entire Psalter together. If interested, please contact Judy Lezinsky. Please provide your name and email address so that she can set up the groups. 😊.

- f. "Good standing" is determined in collaboration with the Rector and the Council President;
- g. Voting membership in two or more Orthodox parishes is not permitted.
- h. A Voting Member has accepted the right, privilege, and responsibility to vote in Parish Assemblies. A Voting Member may be considered for election to office in appropriate Parish bodies. A Voting Member is eligible for election as a delegate to the Diocesan Assembly and the All-American Council.

Annual Parish Meeting Reports Available

The Annual Parish Meeting will be held on Sunday, February 16, 2025. Please be advised that printed copies of the agenda and reports will be available at the candle desk beginning on Sunday, January 26, 2025. Please stop by to pick up a copy at your convenience. If you would like a copy emailed to you or mailed to you, please contact the Administrative Assistant at Assistant4StNicholas@outlook.com. Please note that due to postal delays, we cannot guarantee that mailed copies will arrive prior to the meeting.

Heavenly Father...

Physician of our souls and bodies, Who has sent Your only-begotten Son to heal every sickness and infirmity, visit and heal us, Your Servants, from all physical and spiritual ailments, through the grace of Your Son, Jesus Christ. Grant to us patience in this sickness, strength of body, and recovery of health. Lord, You have taught us through Your Word to pray for each other that we may be healed. For You are the source of healing, and to You we give glory; Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.
